Biblical Compilation By God And Richie Heinlein
(In God I Trust And Write)

Exact Topic: The Walls Come Down And We Are Felled

In honor of Fall, let's look at some scriptures about falling (The Good Sense). First, we have The Fall Of Jericho in Joshua 5: 13-6. This is interesting as we are talking about walls that Satan builds. Jericho at this time was a wicked city. God gave this city to the righteous Joshua and company.

In our day, we also have our "walls of Jericho". They are very real but they are spiritual. They fall the same way. They fall because of our faith in Christ. All who are inside (unfortunately) will be crushed by the crumbling walls if they don't come to God before it is too late. We are talking about giving over control to God before He destroys their comfortable prison of sin etc.

Now, this may not mean loss of salvation in some cases, even though there is an allusion to it. It means that we have made our lives a living mess—a lot of people like it that way. Some people must for some reason ruin their lives and God has to literally break them to pieces in order to build them up strong and righteous. Sometimes this means life threatening illness or spiritual crisis. God must fell us in order to save us. God has a way of redeeming those who are willing. Our faith in Christ destroys these walls and we will persevere.

Secondly, Matthew 13: 30-34 states that the kingdom of God sort of works slowly, but effectively; we start out with a little bit of the Kingdom and then it grows huge and really strong. Guess what that does to the devil's kingdom since it is no match for God, yup you guessed it, this makes his kingdom fall and get blown away.

Thirdly, Mark 4: 26-29 states that we may not know how this seed grows, but we know that there will be a bountiful harvest. The Fall season, as I understand is harvesting time for grain. God's kingdom is like this, we may not even know who we plant seeds into, or if they even pay attention to us, but we plant seeds. We may not know how the seed will grow in a person or who it will grow in, but rest assured it grows. Eventually, there will be a harvest of 30, 60, or 100 times. Read Mark 4: 8, 20 for the verses.

Fourth, if we actually take a look at the parable of the sower in Mark 4: 1-20, it makes even more sense because Jesus talks about this. We clearly will not succeed in everyone, but Jesus tells us to sow, sow, sow and never quit. In faith, we pray for the seed to find hearts that are fertile and for God to break stony hearts and give them hearts of flesh (Ezekiel 11: 19; 36: 26). Keep the faith. Run the race. Fight the good fight. We are slaves of righteousness (I am alluding to I Corinthians 9: 24-27 and II Timothy 4: 1-7).

May God Be Forever Praised—Amen!!
