A Spiritual Lesson In Toon Language:

(Sing A Song Of Christians: Lesson IVF)--

Chlorhydris Can't Steal Our Love Mirth,

And Unity In Jesus Christ!!!

I) Opening Prayer

II) Remember Our Bible Point: Does

everyone remember our Bible Point for our Chlorhydris lesson theme? To emphasize this Bible Point, let's read I John 7-8, 16 together.

III) A Different Spin On Things: If you have seen Lesson I of the "For The Kids" subset of our cartoon Bible devotionals (You may not have because it is in a different set of lessons) we used a cartoon from the Smurfs series called Can't Smurf The Music. We are going to use this cartoon as well for the Chlorhydris theme that we are in, however there is going to be a much different lesson (even though the same theme) inside it than that one. Remember, that we are studying the character named Chlorhydri. When we are done with this show, we will have a discussion about its meaning this time.

IV) Cartoon Show: Can't Smurf The Music

V) Bible Study # I, Analysis And Discussion

I: Before we get to our study, what are your thoughts on the character named Laconia?

Laconia symbolizes God. Let's read Psalms

27.

Linking to the cartoon, what do you see about Laconia in the scriptures?

Laconia sheds some light on the subject of joy and praise. It's the same as music to God. Why is joy and praise the same as music to the Lord? How does Laconia become the Smurf's refuge as God is to us (remember she symbolizes God)?

VI) Bible Study # II, Analysis And

Discussion # II: Laconia teaches us about the "no matter what" principle of joy

(remember she symbolizes God). Let's read

Matthew 10: 17-31. Linking to the cartoon, what does this mean to you? Do these scriptures remind you of Chlorhydris?

Why? Chlorhydris could steal the visible joy and mirth, but she could not steal the Smurfs' spirit. The Smurfs did a good job keeping their inner joy.

VII) Bible Study # III, Analysis And

Discussion III: Laconia taught about the value of Christian unity (remember she symbolizes God). Let's read I Corinthians

12. Slouchy symbolizes a true Christian who is full of praise. If Slouchy symbolizes a Christian, how does Laconia show her symbol (God)?

Laconia encourages Slouchy to have praise and be steadfast no matter what. On top of that, Laconia was able to raise the Smurf army to praise (in sign language) right in front of Chlorhydri's window and her evil horn. What do you think of Slouchy's song when you look at the scriptures and this cartoon? Notice Slouchy is singing about the joy of unity inside the body of Smurfs.

Isn't this what we are supposed to do as Christians? In other words, are we not supposed to be unified in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and be glad and joyous in that unity no matter what our job or gift?

Yes, as Slouchy's song says, I sing of a place that is happy and free, where we all live together in one family, where we work for each other and each does their part, where the love that's between us comes straight from the heart, and there's no place I'd rather be on the earth than the place that I sing, the home of the Smurfs. When we see the words the home of the Smurfs, we see the word family. In a working family we see that one purpose is in mind. This is to be peaceful, not fight and be of one mind when it comes to this end. As Christians, to be who we need to be we have to have like minds in Christ our Lord, and get along no matter what gift we have and what adversary we encounter. Laconia, like God was there in the face of the wicked Chlorhydris and was there in the presence of Slouchy's song at the end. Isn't this just like God?

God helps us when we are weak and rejoices with us when all is well. When Christians are unified this is what happens. The Bible states in Matthew 18: 18-20

Mt 18: 18 "I tell you the truth, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

Mt 18:19 “Again, I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven.

Mt 18:20 For where two or three come together in my name, there am I with them.”

Slouchy’s song is a song of praise. As Christians, we need to be praising God that we are happy and free and live together in one family. We need to have love between us that comes straight from the heart.

VIII) Recap And Closing: How did we see that God is Love in this cartoon? How can you show that God is Love and the unity in Jesus Christ that we are talking about so others can be blessed this week and beyond?

One last question for this session, how can you make it a point to not be afraid of a Chlorhydris-type of a person who wants to make you depressed and steal your music?

Pray to keep your faith, unity, and love for and in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!!!

IX) Closing Prayer
